

Robin A. Dodokin

Dodokin Law & Conflict Resolution

FCIArb., Q.Arb., LL.M., Q.Med.

Linkedin.com/in/robindodokin

Toronto Canada

Robin Dodokin has over 30 years of dispute resolution experience as an experienced commercial litigator, mediator, and arbitrator. She is a Fellow of The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb.) and has been designated as a Qualified Arbitrator (Q.Arb.) and Qualified Mediator (Q.Med.) by the ADR Institute of Canada. She is a member of the arbitrator roster at Arbitration Place and Vancouver International Arbitration Centre (VANIAC).

She is on the Board of Directors for the Toronto Commercial Arbitration Society (TCAS) and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Canada Branch).

In 2017, Robin founded the law firm Dodokin Law & Conflict Resolution, offering legal services and conflict resolution services including mediation and arbitration. Prior to that she was a partner for 23 years at a mid-size Toronto law firm. Robin has been appointed to arbitrate and mediate commercial, contractual, shareholder business and employment disputes. Her expertise encompasses commercial, insolvency, real estate, shareholder business disputes. Robin is passionate about relationship preservation and dispute avoidance work through mediation when possible and appreciates that some circumstances require arbitration or litigation.

Robin is regularly asked to speak about dispute resolution, shareholder and business partner disputes, family enterprises and virtual advocacy.

Robin is also a co-editor of 'Arbitration and Business Cases", which summarizes important arbitration and business cases. (<https://arbitrationandbusinesscases.ca>)

Recently she has written articles about Artificial Intelligence and Arbitration(<https://adric.ca/wp-content/uploads/2023/03/ADR-P-03.02.2023.html>) and "How to short circuit family business disputes". (<https://canadianfamilyoffices.com/commentary/how-to-short-circuit-family-disputes-avoid-a-succession-worthy-mess>) and virtual advocacy.

Language: English

City: Toronto

Province : Ontario

Country: Canada

Email address: robin@dodokinlaw.com

Phone number : 416-300-6515

Website: <https://dodokinlaw.com>